OVERVIEW:

This program will focus on the basics of documentation, including the American Nurses Association's (ANA) principles, and expectations from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) and the Joint Commission (TJC). The presenter will also address legal implications regarding documentation.

The presenter will include case studies in the discussion that show how the content, or lack thereof, resulted in a decision either for the healthcare provider or the plaintiff.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Recall the ANA's principles for nursing documentation;
- Describe the regulatory and professional requirements and expectations for documentation;
- Recite that the basic requirements for documentation are clear, accurate, timely, and complete; and
- Demonstrate the importance of documentation in preventing and/or defending medical malpractice cases.

MEET YOUR FACULTY:

Laura A. Dixon, BS, JD, RN, CPHRM

Laura Dixon is the president of Healthcare Risk Education and Consulting, LLC. Previously, she served as the Director of Facility Patient Safety and Risk Management and Operations for Colorado Region of Kaiser Permanente (COPIC) from 2014 to 2020.
