OVERVIEW:

Advanced care planning involves making decisions about the care patients may seek to receive if they become unable to speak for themselves. The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) and The Joint Commission (TJC) have requirements on advance directives to remain in compliance with the respective regulations and standards. The Patient Self Determination Act, a federal law, addresses advance directives with which all hospitals must comply. It has been proven that better end-of-life care can reduce readmissions. This webinar will cover the CMS hospital Conditions of Participation (CoPs) and TJC standards on advance directives to help hospitals ensure compliance.

OBJECTIVES:

- Describe the CMS CoP requirements for advance directives for hospitals;
- Identify the Joint Commission standards on advance directives;
- Explain what is required under the Patient Self-Determination Act; and
- Discuss which patients must and should be given information on the hospital's advance directive policies.
